1	Moment of Truth, Greenpeace (https://www.greenpeace.org/international/publication/15395/moment-of-truth/)	19/03/2018	The report claims the following companies to be responsible for deforestation, peatland clearance, exploitation and illegality in Malaysia and Indonesia: ① FELDA/FGV, ② Salim Group / Indoagri, Indofoods, ③ Samling Group / Glenealy Plantations. It has been alleged that Fuji Oil received palm oil from these suppliers.	Greenpeace International	FUJI OIL Group has identified that its supply chain is connected to the listed companies via 3 direct suppliers. FUJI OIL Group has engaged with all direct suppliers to seek confirmation on the allegations made against the respective companies, and the actions being taken by its direct suppliers to hold these companies to account. All direct suppliers recognised the allegations made and have engaged their respective suppliers on the issues raised. Most of our suppliers showed us continuous action plans to rectify the alleged issues. Nonetheless, for Salim, FUJI OIL Group has excluded Salim from our supply chain since 30th September 2018 onwards. FUJI OIL Group's engagement and monitoring on the remaining 2 companies with our direct suppliers are still ongoing.	① Ongoing ② Suspension ③ Ongoing
2	LEUSER WATCH, Rain Forest Action Network (https://d3n8a8pro7vnm.cloudfront.net/rainforestactionnetwork/pages/19619/attachments/original/1527622021/PT_SP_S_LW_Case_Study_May2018.pdf?1527622021)	30/05/2018	The report claims the PT SPS was exposed for the destructions of the Tripa peatland, located in the Leuser Ecosystem of Sumatra. It has been alleged that Fuji Oil received palm oil from the PT SPS through intermediate suppliers.	Rainforest Action Network	FUJI OIL Group has identified that its supply chain is connected to PT Surya Panen Subur II via 2 direct suppliers. FUJI OIL Group has engaged with all direct suppliers that have been identified as sourcing from PT Surya Panen Subur II. FUJI OIL Group has since sought confirmation on the allegations made against the respective companies, and the actions being taken by our direct suppliers. Apparently, PT Surya Panen Subur II is in contact with RAN to rectify this issue. Nonetheless, FUJI OIL Group's engagement and monitoring on the action plans from PT Surya Panen Subur II with our direct suppliers are still ongoing.	Ongoing
